3. Objects of Association

3.1 The Association exists to facilitate improvements in the security, safety, and amenity of Banjup, Jandakot, and Treeby for its rural residents.

3.2 The Association will achieve its objects by:

- a) Making representations to government, corporations, and persons to deliver improvements to the security, safety, and amenity of Banjup, Jandakot, and Treeby.
- b) Contributing funds and resources for the improvement of amenities in Banjup, Jandakot, and Treeby.
- c) Encouraging good neighbourly contacts between Banjup, Jandakot, and Treeby rural residents
- d) Doing all things necessary or convenient in accordance with the Act.

3.3 The property and income of the Association shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Association and no part of that property or income may be paid or otherwise distributed, directly or indirectly, to members, except in good faith in the promotion of those objects.

4. Powers of Association

The powers conferred on the Association are the same as those conferred by section 14 of the Act, so that subject to the Act, the Association may do all things necessary or convenient for carrying out its objects and purposes, and in particular, may -

- a) acquire, hold, deal with, and dispose of any real or personal property;
- b) open and operate bank accounts;
- c) invest its money -
 - i.) in any security in which trust monies may lawfully be invested;
or
 - ii.) in any other manner authorised by the rules of the Association;
- d) borrow money upon such terms and conditions as the Association thinks fit;
- e) give such security for the discharge of liabilities incurred by the Association as the Association thinks fit;
- f) appoint agents to transact any business of the Association on its behalf;
- g) enter into any other contract it considers necessary or desirable; and
- h) may act as trustee and accept and hold real and personal property upon trust but does not have power to do any act or thing as a trustee that, if done otherwise than as a trustee, would contravene this Act or the rules of the Association.

5. Qualifications for membership of Association

5.1 Membership of the Association is normally limited to those natural persons over 18 years of age whose usual place of residence is at a property in the Resource Zone of the City of Cockburn.

- 5.2 At its sole discretion, the Committee may consider applications for membership from government, corporations, or persons residing outside the Resource Zone.
- 5.3 A person who wishes to become a member must apply for membership to the Committee in writing-
- a) signed by that person; and
 - b) in such form as the Committee from time to time directs
- 5.4 The Committee members must consider each application made under sub-rule 5.3 at a Committee meeting and must at the Committee meeting or the next Committee meeting accept or reject that application.
- 5.5 If the Committee approves the membership of a person applying in accordance with sub-rule 5.1, then that person must be granted a deliberative vote at general meetings.
- 5.6 If the Committee approves the membership of a person or organisation applying in accordance with sub-rule 5.2, then the Committee may, at its sole discretion, grant or deny a deliberative vote to such persons or organisations.
- 5.7 An applicant whose application for membership of the Association is rejected under sub-rule 5.4 must, if he or she wishes to appeal against that decision, give notice to the Secretary of his or her intention to do so within a period of 14 days from the date he or she is advised of the rejection.
- 5.8 When notice is given under sub-rule 5.7, the Association in a general meeting no later than the next annual general meeting, must either confirm or set aside the decision of the Committee to reject the application, after having afforded the applicant who gave that notice a reasonable opportunity to be heard by, or to make representations in writing to, the Association in the general meeting.

6. Register of members of Association

- 6.1 The Secretary, on behalf of the Association, must comply with section 53 of the Act by keeping and maintaining in an up to date condition a register of the members of the Association and their postal or residential addresses and electronic mail addresses and, upon the request of a member of the Association, shall make the register available for the inspection of the member but shall have no right to remove the register for that purpose.
- 6.2 The register must be so kept and maintained at the Secretary's place of residence, or at such other place as the members at a general meeting decide.
- 6.3 The Secretary must cause the name of a person who dies or who ceases to be a member under rule 8 to be deleted from the register of members referred to in sub-rule 6.1.

7. Subscriptions of members of Association

- 7.1 The members may from time to time at a general meeting determine the amount of the subscription to be paid by each member.
- 7.2 Each member must pay to the Treasurer, annually on or before 1 July or such other date as the Committee from time to time determines, the amount of the subscription determined under sub-rule 7.1.
- 7.3 Subject to sub-rule 7.4, a member whose subscription is not paid within 3 months after the relevant date fixed by or under sub-rule 7.2 ceases on the expiry of that period to be a member, unless the Committee decides otherwise.
- 7.4 A person exercises all the rights and obligations of a member for the purposes of these rules if his or her subscription is paid on or before the relevant date fixed by or under sub- rule 7.2 or within 3 months thereafter, or such other time as the Committee allows.

8. Termination of membership of the Association

8.1 Membership of the Association may be terminated upon-

- a) receipt by the Secretary or another Committee member of a notice in writing from a member of his or her resignation from the Association. Such person remains liable to pay to the Association the amount of any subscription due and payable by that person to the Association but unpaid at the date of termination; or
- b) non-payment by a member of his or her subscription within three months of the date fixed by the Committee for subscriptions to be paid, unless the Committee decides otherwise in accordance with rule 7.3 or
- c) expulsion of a member in accordance with rule 9.

9. Suspension or expulsion of members of Association

9.1 If the Committee considers that a member should be suspended or expelled from membership of the Association because his or her conduct is detrimental to the interests of the Association, the Committee must communicate, either orally or in writing, to the member-

- a) notice of the proposed suspension or expulsion and of the time, date and place of the Committee meeting at which the question of that suspension or expulsion will be decided; and
- b) particulars of that conduct, not less than 30 days before the date of the Committee meeting referred to in paragraph a)

9.2 At the Committee meeting referred to in a notice communicated under sub-rule 9.1 the Committee may, having afforded the member concerned a reasonable opportunity to be heard by, or to make representations in writing to, the Committee, suspend or expel or decline to suspend or expel that member from membership of the Association and must, forthwith after deciding whether or not to suspend or expel that member, communicate that decision in writing to that member.

- 9.3 Subject to sub-rule 9.5, a member has his or her membership suspended or ceases to be a member 14 days after the day on which the decision to suspend or expel a member is communicated to him or her under sub-rule 9.2.
- 9.4 A member who is suspended or expelled under sub-rule 9.2 must, if he or she wishes to appeal against that suspension or expulsion, give notice to the Secretary of his or her intention to do so within the period of 14 days referred to in sub-rule 9.3.
- 9.5 When notice is given under sub-rule 9.4:
- a) the Association in a general meeting, must either confirm or set aside the decision of the Committee to suspend or expel the member, after having afforded the member who gave that notice a reasonable opportunity to be heard by, or to make representations in writing to, the Association in the general meeting; and
 - b) the member who gave that notice is not suspended or does not cease to be a member unless and until the decision of the Committee to suspend or expel him or her is confirmed under this sub-rule.

10. Committee of Management

- 10.1 Subject to sub-rule 10.10, the affairs of the Association will be managed exclusively by a Committee of Management consisting of-
- a) a President;
 - b) a Vice-President;
 - c) a Secretary;
 - d) a Treasurer; and
 - e) not more than 5 other persons,
- all of whom must be members of the Association.
- 10.2 Committee members must be elected to membership of the Committee at an annual general meeting or appointed under sub-rule 10.9.

- 10.3 Subject to sub-rule 10.9, a Committee member's term will be from his or her election at an annual general meeting until the election referred to in sub-rule 10.2 at the next annual general meeting after his or her election, but he or she is eligible for re-election to membership of the Committee
- 10.4 A member shall not hold the office of President, Vice President, Treasurer, or Secretary if that member:
- a) has held that same office for the previous 2 consecutive years; or
 - b) has been a member of the Association for less than 1 year
- 10.5 Except for nominees under sub-rule 10.8, a person is not eligible for election to membership of the Committee unless a member has nominated him or her for election by delivering notice in writing of that nomination, signed by-
- a) the nominator; and
 - b) the nominee to signify his or her willingness to stand for election, to the Secretary not less than 2 days before the day on which the annual general meeting concerned is to be held.
- 10.6 A person who is eligible for election or re-election under this rule may -
- a) propose or second himself or herself for election or re-election; and
 - b) vote for himself or herself.
- 10.7 If the number of persons nominated in accordance with sub-rule 10.4 for election to membership of the Committee does not exceed the number of vacancies in that membership to be filled-
- a) the Secretary must report accordingly to; and
 - b) the President must declare those persons to be duly elected as members of the Committee at, the annual general meeting concerned.

- 10.8 If vacancies remain on the Committee after the declaration under sub-rule 10.7 additional nominations of Committee members may be accepted from the floor of the annual general meeting. If such nominations from the floor do not exceed the number of vacancies the President must declare those persons to be duly elected as members of Committee. Where the number of nominations from the floor exceeds the remaining number of vacancies on the Committee, elections for those positions must be conducted.
- 10.9 If a vacancy remains on the Committee after the application of sub-rule 10.8 or when a casual vacancy within the meaning of rule 14 occurs in the membership of the Committee-
- a) the Committee may appoint a member to fill that vacancy; and
 - b) a member appointed under this sub-rule will -
 - i.) hold office until the election referred to in sub-rule 10.2; and
 - ii.) be eligible for election to membership of the Committee, at the next following annual general meeting.
- 10.10 The Committee may delegate, in writing, to one to more sub-committees (consisting of such member or members of the association as the Committee thinks fit) the exercise of such functions of the Committee as are specified in the delegation other than-
- a) the power of delegation; and
 - b) a function which is a duty imposed on the Committee by the Act or any other law.
- 10.11 A Sub-Committee:
- a) shall be governed by the same Rules as the Association.
 - b) must include at least one member of the Committee of Management.
 - c) must submit all decisions and recommendations to the Committee before any action may be undertaken.

- d) must make progress reports to each Committee meeting and to each general meeting

10.12 Any delegation under sub-rule 10.10 may be subject to such conditions and limitations as to the exercise of that function or as to time and circumstances as are specified in any written delegation and the Committee may continue to exercise any function delegated.

10.13 The Committee may, in writing, revoke wholly or in part any delegation under sub-rule 10.10.

11. President and Vice-President

11.1 Subject to this rule, the President must preside at all general meetings and Committee meetings.

11.2 In the event of the absence from a general meeting of-

- a) the President, the Vice-President; or
 - b) both the President and the Vice-President, a member elected by the other members present at the general meeting,
- must preside at the general meeting.

11.3 In the event of the absence from a Committee meeting of-

- a) the President, the Vice-President; or
- b) both the President and the Vice-President, a Committee member elected by the other Committee members present at the Committee meeting must preside at the Committee meeting.

12. Secretary

12.1 The Secretary must-

- a) co-ordinate the correspondence of the Association;
- b) keep full and correct minutes of the proceedings of the Committee and of the Association;
- c) comply on behalf of the Association with-

- i.) section 53 of the Act with respect to the register of members of the Association, as referred to in rule 6;
- ii.) section 35 of the Act by keeping and maintaining in an up to date condition the rules of the Association and, upon the request of a member of the Association, must make available those rules for the inspection of the member and the member may make a copy of or take an extract from the rules but will have no right to remove the rules for that purpose; and
- iii.) section 58 of the Act by maintaining a record of -
 - A) the names and residential or postal addresses of the persons who hold the offices of the Association provided for by these rules, including all offices held by the persons who constitute the Committee and persons who are authorised to use the common seal of the Association under rule 22; and
 - B) the names and residential or postal addresses of any persons who are appointed or act as trustees on behalf of the Association,and the Secretary must, upon the request of a member of the Association, make available the record for the inspection of the member and the member may copy an extract from the record but will have no right to remove the record for that purpose;
- d) unless the members resolve otherwise at a general meeting, have custody of all books, documents, records and registers of the Association, including those referred to in paragraph c) but other than those required by rule 13 to be kept and maintained by, or in the custody of, the Treasurer; and
- e) perform such other duties as are imposed by these rules on the Secretary.

13. Treasurer

13.1 The Treasurer must-

- a) be responsible for the receipt of all moneys paid to or received by, or by him or her on behalf of, the Association and must issue receipts for those moneys in the name of the Association;
- b) pay all moneys referred to in paragraph a) into such account or accounts of the Association as the Committee may from time to time direct;
- c) make payments from the funds of the Association with the authority of a general meeting or of the Committee and in so doing ensure that all cheques are signed by himself or herself and at least one other authorised Committee member, or by any two others as are authorised by the Committee;
- d) comply on behalf of the Association with the relevant requirements of Part 5 of the Act, as a Tier 1 association, and, in particular, with sections 66, 68, and 70 of the Act with respect to the accounting records of the Association by-
 - i.) keeping such accounting records as correctly record and explain the financial transactions and financial position of the Association;
 - ii.) keeping its accounting records in such manner as will enable true and fair accounts of the Association to be prepared from time to time;
 - iii.) keeping its accounting records in such manner as will enable true and fair accounts of the Association to be conveniently and properly audited; and
 - iv.) submitting to members at each annual general meeting of the Association accounts of the Association showing the financial position of the Association at the end of the immediately preceding financial year.

- e) whenever directed to do so by the President, submit to the Committee a report, balance sheet or financial statement in accordance with that direction;
- f) unless the members resolve otherwise at a general meeting, have custody of all securities, books and documents of a financial nature and accounting records of the Association, including those referred to in paragraphs d) and e) and
- g) perform such other duties as are imposed by these rules on the Treasurer.

14. Casual vacancies in membership of Committee

14.1 A casual vacancy occurs in the office of a Committee member and that office becomes vacant if the Committee member-

- a) dies;
- b) resigns by notice in writing delivered to the President or, if the Committee member is the President, to the Vice-President and that resignation is accepted by resolution of the Committee;
- c) is convicted of an offence under the Act;
- d) is permanently incapacitated by mental or physical ill-health;
- e) is absent from more than-
 - i.) 3 consecutive Committee meetings; or
 - ii.) 3 Committee meetings in the same financial year without tendering an apology to the person presiding at each of those Committee meetings of which meetings the member received notice, and the Committee has resolved to declare the office vacant;
- f) ceases to be a member of the Association; or
- g) is the subject of a resolution passed by a general meeting of members terminating his or her appointment as a Committee member.

15. Proceedings of Committee

- 15.1 The Committee must meet together for the dispatch of business not less than 4 times in each year and the President, or at least half the members of the Committee, may at any time convene a meeting of the Committee.
- 15.2 Each Committee member has a deliberative vote.
- 15.3 A question arising at a Committee meeting must be decided by a majority of votes, but, if there no majority, the person presiding at the Committee meeting will have a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberative vote.
- 15.4 At a Committee meeting, 4 Committee members constitute a quorum.
- 15.5 Subject to these rules, the procedure and order of business to be followed at a Committee meeting must be determined by the Committee members present at the Committee meeting.
- 15.6 As required under sections 42 and 43 of the Act, a Committee member having any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a contract, or proposed contract, made by, or in the contemplation of, the Committee (except if that pecuniary interest exists only by virtue of the fact that the member of the Committee is a member of a class of persons for whose benefit the Association is established), must-
- a) as soon as he or she becomes aware of that interest, disclose the nature and extent of his or her interest to the Committee; and
 - b) not take part in any deliberations or decision of the Committee with respect to that contract.
- 15.7 Sub-rule 15.6a) does not apply with respect to a pecuniary interest that exists only by virtue of the fact that the member of the Committee is an employee of the Association.
- 15.8 The Secretary must cause every disclosure made under sub-rule 15.6a) by a member of the Committee to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the Committee at which it is made.

16. General meetings

16.1 The Committee-

- a) may at any time convene a special general meeting;
- b) must convene annual general meetings within the time limits provided for the holding of such meetings by section 50 of the Act, that is, in every calendar year within 4 months after the end of the Association's financial year or such longer period as may in a particular case be allowed by the Commissioner, except for the first annual general meeting which may be held at any time within 18 months after incorporation; and
- c) must, within 30 days of-
 - i.) receiving a request in writing to do so from not less than 10% of current members, convene a special general meeting for the purpose specified in that request; or
 - ii.) the Secretary receiving a notice under rule 9 (4), convene a general meeting to deal with the appeal to which that notice relates.
- d) must, after receiving a notice under rule 5.7, convene a general meeting, no later than the next annual general meeting, at which the appeal referred to in the notice will be dealt with. Failing that, the applicant is entitled to address the Association at that next annual general meeting in relation to the Committee's rejection of his or her application and the Association at that meeting must confirm or set aside the decision of the Committee.

16.2 The members making a request referred to in sub-rule 16.1c)i.) must-

- a) state in that request the purpose for which the special general meeting concerned is required; and
- b) sign that request.

16.3 If a special general meeting is not convened within the relevant period of 30 days referred to-

- a) in sub-rule 16.1c)i.), the members who made the request concerned may themselves convene a special general meeting as if they were the Committee; or
 - b) in sub-rule 16.1c)ii.), the member who gave the notice concerned may him or herself convene a special general meeting as if he or she were the Committee.
- 16.4 When a special general meeting is convened under sub-rule 16.3a) or 16.3b) the Association must pay the reasonable expenses of convening and holding the special general meeting.
- 16.5 Subject to sub-rule 16.7, the Secretary must give to all members not less than 14 days' notice of a special general meeting and that notice must specify-
- a) when and where the general meeting concerned is to be held; and
 - b) particulars of the business to be transacted at the general meeting concerned and of the order in which that business is to be transacted.
- 16.6 Subject to sub-rule 16.7, the Secretary must give to all members not less than 14 days' notice of an annual general meeting and that notice must specify-
- a) when and where the annual general meeting is to be held;
 - b) the particulars and order in which business is to be transacted, as follows-
 - i.) first, the consideration of the accounts and reports of the Committee;
 - ii.) second, the election of Committee members to replace outgoing Committee members; and
 - iii.) third, any other business requiring consideration by the Association at the general meeting.

- 16.7 A special resolution may be moved either at a special general meeting or at an annual general meeting; however, the Secretary must give to all members not less than 14 days' notice of the meeting at which a special resolution is to be proposed. In addition to those matters specified in sub-rule 16.5 or 16.6, as relevant, the notice must also include the resolution to be proposed and the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution.
- 16.8 The Secretary must give a notice under sub-rule 16.5, 16.6, or 16.7 -
- a) by prepaid post or hand delivery to the address appearing in the register of members kept and maintained under rule 6.; or
 - b) by electronic transmission to the electronic mail address appearing in the register of members kept and maintained under rule 6; or
 - c) by notice on the Association's web site; or
 - d) by prominently placed signs in the main thoroughfares of Banjup, Jandakot, and Treeby.

17. Quorum and proceedings at general meetings

- 17.1 At a general meeting 8 members present in person constitute a quorum.
- 17.2 If within 30 minutes after the time specified for the holding of a general meeting in a notice given under rule 16.5 or 16.6-
- a) as a result of a request or notice referred to in rule 16.1c) or as a result of action taken under rule 16.3, a quorum is not present, the general meeting lapses; or
 - b) otherwise than as a result of a request, notice or action referred to in paragraph a), the general meeting stands adjourned to the same time on the same day in the following week and to the same venue.

- 17.3 If within 30 minutes of the time appointed by sub-rule 17.2b) for the resumption of an adjourned general meeting a quorum is not present, the members who are present in person or by proxy may nevertheless proceed with the business of that general meeting as if a quorum were present.
- 17.4 The President may, with the consent of a general meeting at which a quorum is present, and must, if so directed by such a general meeting, adjourn that general meeting from time to time and from place to place.
- 17.5 There must not be transacted at an adjourned general meeting any business other than business left unfinished or on the agenda at the time when the general meeting was adjourned.
- 17.6 When a general meeting is adjourned for a period of 30 days or more, the Secretary must give notice under rule 16 of the adjourned general meeting as if that general meeting were a fresh general meeting.
- 17.7 At a general meeting-
- a) an ordinary resolution put to the vote will be decided by a majority of votes cast by members entitled to a deliberative vote in accordance with sub-rules 5.5 or 5.6 on a show of hands, subject to sub-rule 17.9; and
 - b) a special resolution put to the vote will be decided in accordance with section 51 of the Act as defined in rule 2, and, if a poll is demanded, in accordance with sub-rules 17.9 and 17.11.
- 17.8 A declaration by the President of a general meeting that a resolution has been passed as an ordinary resolution at the meeting will be evidence of that fact unless, during the general meeting at which the resolution is submitted, a poll is demanded in accordance with sub-rule 17.9.
- 17.9 At a general meeting, a poll may be demanded by the President or by three or more members present in person or by proxy and, if so demanded, must be taken in such manner as the President directs.

17.10 If a poll is demanded and taken under sub-rule 17.9 in respect of an ordinary resolution, a declaration by the President of the result of the poll is evidence of the matter so declared.

17.11 A poll demanded under sub-rule 17.9 must be taken immediately on that demand being made.

18. Minutes of meetings of Association

18.1 The Secretary must cause proper minutes of all proceedings of all general meetings and Committee meetings to be taken and then to be entered within 30 days after the holding of each general meeting or Committee meeting, as the case requires, in a minute book kept for that purpose.

18.2 The President must ensure that the minutes taken of a general meeting or Committee meeting under sub-rule 18.1 are checked and signed as correct by the President of the general meeting or Committee meeting to which those minutes relate or by the President of the next succeeding general meeting or Committee meeting, as the case requires.

18.3 When minutes have been entered and signed as correct under this rule, they are, until the contrary is proved, evidence that-

- a) the general meeting or Committee meeting to which they relate (in this sub-rule called "the meeting") was duly convened and held;
- b) all proceedings recorded as having taken place at the meeting did in fact take place at the meeting; and
- c) all appointments or elections purporting to have been made at the meeting have been validly made.

19. Voting rights of members of Association

19.1 Subject to these rules, each member present in person or by proxy at a general meeting entitled to a deliberative vote in accordance with sub-rules 5.5 or 5.6 is entitled to a deliberative vote at a general meeting.

- 19.2 A member which is a body corporate may appoint in writing a natural person, whether or not he or she is a member, to represent it at a particular general meeting or at all general meetings.
- 19.3 An appointment made under sub-rule 19.2 must be made by a resolution of the board or other governing body of the body corporate concerned-
- a) which resolution is authenticated under the common seal of that body corporate; and
